Held on Fridays from 6:30-10:30pm at the Gibson Child Development Center or Youth Center, depending on the age of the child. Reservations are required by prior Tuesday of the desired date.

Sponsored by the Air Force Aid Society, a voucher for free childcare is available to Active Duty Air Force families when a parent is experiencing stress and needs a break for couple of hours for the following conditions:

- Military member is deployed or on extended TDY
- Family has a child with special needs
- An emergency situation (birth of baby, serious illness, death in the family, etc.)
- Extended illness of a family member
- A spouse working extensive, extended shifts
- Just need a break due to stress

Vouchers may be provided by Airman & Family Readiness Flight, Squadron CC, 1st Sergeant, Chaplain, Chief, Air Force Aid Society Officer or Asst Officer, Chief of Mental Health, Family Advocacy, and CDC Director or Asst Director.
