Escalate request to Community

Director if issue not resolved.

Request assistance from the Military Housing Office (MHO).

Engage the assistance of the Resident Advocate.

If issue has still not been resolved, contact Air Force Helpline.

Consult independent legal counsel if this is a legal matter that cannot be resolved following these steps.

Tenant may also involve their chain of command.
Tenant may involve Resident Advocate throughout this process, as necessary.

Tenant may seek independent legal advice at any time.

Resident Advocate Services

- Advocate for residents regarding housing issues.
- Consult on landlord/tenant rights, laws, regulations, etc.
- Mediate with KFH on behalf of residents.
- Facilitate discussions between MHO, KFH and residents.
- Escalate issues to base leadership.
- Work with base agencies to resolve resident issues.
- Help navigate the Exceptional Family Member Program.

Join the Kirtland AFB privatized housing resident council!

An excellent way to round out your EPR/OPR along the lines of "Championed Airmen neighbors as volunteer housing councilmember to improve quality of life for XX military families."

The council meets quarterly and can help resolve ambiguities in housing rules and regulations, alleviate community concerns (speeding, neighborhood eyesores, etc.), and host morale-boosting, fun activities.

Contact Stephen Kowal at 505-420-8369, your resident advocate, to get an application, a copy of the charter, and to answer all your questions.

- Offer helpful information that can support you in helping someone that is experiencing mental health concerns, substance use challenges, suicidal ideation, and personal crisis situations.
- Introduce people to the common mental health experiences people often encounter.
- Teach a 5-step action plan that you can use to assist people in both crisis and non-crisis situations.
- Fights stigma associated with mental illness.
